Major Funding Announcement for Lion's Head Harbour

(Excerpt from DFO Press Release)

"Lion's Head, Ontario

The Honourable Gail Shea, Minister of Fisheries and Oceans, joined by Larry Miller, Member of Parliament for Bruce-Grey-Owen Sound, today announced that the Government of Canada will invest in a repair project at the Lion's Head small craft harbour.

"Our Government recognizes that safe infrastructure is vital to the economic well-being of many communities across the country", said Minister Shea. "The investment announced today demonstrates our Government's commitment to supporting local economies."

"Investing in repairs at the Lion's Head small craft harbour in the Municipality of Northern Bruce Peninsula will address safety concerns at this facility," said MP Miller. "Our Government is making investments to ensure our harbours are in satisfactory operating condition for local sport fishers and all other harbour users."

This year, Fisheries and Oceans Canada's Small Craft Harbours Program is undertaking repair and maintenance work at small craft harbours across Canada through an investment of approximately $63 million. This investment will fund over 100 major repair, construction, maintenance and dredging projects. In addition, the investment will enable a large number of minor repair and redredging projects to be carried out throughout the country."

What this means, in a nutshell, is a facelift for Lion's Head Harbour, with the largest part being paid (as it should be) with federal money.

The rotting pilings, the huge concrete facings that are hanging over empty space where wooden pilings used to be, the sinkholes that make it impossible to place a boat-lifting crane — will soon be past history.

Mark Sanderson of Small Craft Harbours was present at the announcement to explain the details.

A new harbourfront face will be installed in front of the old: steel H piles will be driven down to bedrock at five foot intervals and tied to anchor blocks well back from shore. Concrete panels fit between the H piles to form the harbour wall. New ladders and other hardware will be established along the harbour wall.

The idea is to "encapsulate the existing structure" and build a much more robust harbour wall a metre or so in front of the old one.

The municipal contribution to the budget will cover removing and replacing services along the harbour wall and then repaving the area.

municipality. The municipality builds and operates whatever services it needs.

Four basic services are involved — fuel, sewage, water and electrical. These all generate revenue for the municipality and must be removed and reinstalled at municipal expense. Fortunately, Mayor Milt McIver explains, there is a municipal reserve of approximately $150,000, representing past profits from the marina operation which have been saved for a time of need.

MNBP is “reinvesting that revenue to upgrade the facilities”. The tendering process will begin shortly.

The time frame for both the federal and municipal parts of this project are the same: work will begin in late October and should be finished by the end of March, 2014.

Above and below: Lion’s Head Harbour: the concrete looks solid, doesn’t it? Then you look at the rotting (or absent) wooden pilings underneath. Then you notice the cracks in the concrete and the alarming angle of the concrete pad (it was level when they poured it...) Insiders’ comment (not for attribution): It’s a miracle the whole thing hasn’t collapsed into the harbour.

Bruce Peninsula Bird Observatory Annual Open House

Submitted by Rod Steinacher

Seeing birds up close is one of the great pleasures in the out of doors. Seeing one really close, being banded, is a thrill. You will have a chance to see birds being banded, as part of the regular migration monitoring program, when the Bruce Peninsula Bird Observatory opens the doors of its Cabot Head Research Station to the general public on Saturday, September 7th, from 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM.

A number of activities will be taking place in the relaxed Open House atmosphere. Bird banding demos will happen every 1/2 hour (if there are birds in the nets!), with Andrew, our Station Scientist, answering all of your questions. There will also be tours of the research station facilities, including our "off the grid" equipment and the available accommodations in Grebe Lodge. From time to time, birding walks that follow the daily census route will be led by our intrepid migration monitoring volunteers. This will also be a chance for people to get information on how to contribute to BPBO's valuable migration monitoring work.

Refreshments will be available, but you may want to bring your own snack.

Families are welcome (but be aware that there is poison ivy along the laneway and trails). Maybe we'll see some of the excellent young birders from St. Edmund's Public School!

Please bring good footwear and hydrating fluids; hopefully a raincoat won't be necessary. Binoculars are always good to have with you when in a 'birdy' location, and BPBO has a few pairs of loaner binoculars for use at the station.

'Early birds' have a better chance of seeing more birds banded, so plan to be to the research station earlier, rather than later. Temporary signs will be up to guide you to the station from Highway #6, and a detailed map can be found on BPBO's web site, at http://bpbo.ca/?page_id=157. For those good at finding their own way, head along the Cabot Head Road towards the lighthouse. Look for all the parked cars on the left, about 400 m before the lighthouse (emergency ID #753). You can park outside the gate and make the 20 minute walk into the station (its a good idea to bring rubber boots, to get through any shallow water that may be at the gate), or you can get a lift in or back from the gate area every 1/2 hour.

Hope to see you there on Saturday the 7th of September!

PUBLISHER'S COLUMN

Recognizing Larry Miller's Hard Work and Other Tidbits

The Municipality of Northern Bruce Peninsula got a pleasant surprise on Friday August 23: a request to attend a funding announcement by Fisheries and Oceans Minister Gail Shea at Lion's Head Marina.

That announcement and its implications are our front page story this issue.

But there's a back-story we'll never hear about. The Government of Canada is trying to keep a lid on spending across the board. Within the Department of Small Craft Harbours, the priorities would have to be commercial harbours that would have an impact on the economy.

So how did a small recreational harbour — no matter how decrepit and dangerous it is — get on DFO's radar?

The answer would appear to be hard work and diligence by MP Larry Miller. The Bruce Peninsula Press salutes Larry Miller for his tireless advocacy on our behalf; we also salute DFO Minister Gail Shea for recognizing the need for immediate action.

The Municipality of Northern Bruce Peninsula has retained EDA Collaborative to suggest possible scenarios and strategies for downtown Tobermory.

EDA was to get public input on the subject and created a questionnaire for people to fill out.

I went to the municipal website to get the questionnaire.

But I could not find any mention of the EDA study nor the questionnaire on the municipality's home page. I clicked to "see all news" but that didn't turn up anything.

I tried PUBLIC NOTICES, hoping there would be a public notice on the subject. Nope.

When you look at the tons of unsupported concrete at the harbour wall and the sinkholes there...

Kudos to Larry Miller and Gail Shea for fixing this before somebody gets hurt.

Kudos to MGNBP for having the reserve funds in place to handle the municipal part of the project.

Obviously I am missing something here so I clicked the link for "Site Map". That got me SERVICE ERROR 403: ACCESS IS DENIED.

So I typed Tobermory into the search bar, hoping to find the questionnaire. There was no mention of the EDA study on the first page that came up. The final item on the second page was 2013 Zoning Bylaw Review. That link produced a lot of information but nothing about the EDA survey.

A search for Tobermory EDA yielded no results.

Tobermory questionnaire also came up empty.

Maybe it's in the Planning section? But no, it's not there either.

It would be tempting to scream "government incompetence" but that would be a cheap shot. This is a huge municipality and staff are juggling a lot of responsibilities.

A better website would involve quite a bit of staff effort. Staff effort costs tax dollars. Would you be willing to pay (slightly) higher taxes for better communications from MGNBP? (I know I would...)

Let The Press and MGNBP know if you'd like to see better communications; make sure you specify what you mean by the phrase "better communications".

As always, Owen Sound Summerfolk happened on the 3rd weekend in August. This year's festival had the strongest-ever NBP presence. Headliner at Sunday morning's Gospel Hour was (former Eastnor Central School and BPDS student) Samantha Martin with her band The Haggard (best name ever for a backup band) and the Levy Sisters.

Also in the program, at the "Homemade Jam" tent were the McMullin brothers and their musical associates: Dylan McMullin plays with Lauren Jewel as Our Shotgun Wedding; Dustin McMullin performs with Patrick Lima.

Our Shotgun Wedding are regular participants at Harbourside Music in Lion's Head. Dustin and Patrick often appear at Tobermory Farmers Market.

Letter: MNBP By-Law Bullies - The Other Side Of The Coin

Every day we hear of property owners across Ontario infringing on the laws of the land. We currently own three parcels of land (2 acres, 25 acres, 32 acres) in MNBP, and have abided by the by-laws of our community. I also like to hunt and camp (in approved camp sites) and fish, and in doing so am able to enjoy these activities without contravening the law.

I am aware that the laws have changed, and that this may cause some owners some grief. However, I purchased a building lot in the Cape Hurd area, and have built a very expensive home. These are building lots, not camping lots. There are numerous locations for camping and tenting in the area, and they should be used. We have many lots close by, that are being used for camping, with no facilities. They defecate in the woods, and have fires without a means of extinguishment. They come and enjoy the properties occasionally, hoping not to get caught "occupying" and I have to look at the unsightly mess all year. I totally agree with the parking prohibition.

If I have to live in a trailer park, that is the tax rate I want to pay.

Not only do I have to witness this, but I have to worry about the quality of my well, and safety of my home. I realize that many of these lots were purchased years ago at low prices, and many owners cannot afford to build on them. I suggest they take advantage of the current price, sell their property at a profit and move on. We live here, pay big taxes, and are building a community. We do not support the view that people come here and abuse our laws so they can have a weekend party spot.

There are places for that activity. Find them.

I believe our law enforcement has been very lenient thus far, and we need to increase the vigilance to ensure the rights of law-abiding ratepayers.

Eric & Val Goodyear, Tobermory

Letter: Evasive Action Must Be Taken On Lake Levels

John Francis rant on the low lake levels is an excellent analysis of one of the major causes of the low water levels in the Lakes Huron, Michigan and Georgian Bay basin. The reality is that by increasing the out flow by dredging the St. Clair river we have managed over time to decrease the levels of Huron, Michigan and Georgian Bay. The trend to warmer weather and lower than average precipitation have hand in hand exacerbated these historically low lake levels that will certainly worsen unless corrective action is enacted.

The outflow at Sarnia / Port Huron needs to be restricted with a dam and a system of locks. A dam would restrict the water exiting the middle lake basin and gradually increase the lake level. In contrast to wind turbines, that are dependent on unpredictable winds, the installation of water turbines in this dam that would produce clean, reliable and efficient hydro electric power.

The present increase in the lake level may well be temporary and the result of this year's increased precipitation and cool weather; this time next year, with the probable return to above normal temperatures and reduced precipitation, the lake could be lower than ever. Unless evasive action is taken, to restrict the water flow from Lake Huron, reduced lake levels are a certainty.

Letter: Thank You To Bayside Astronomy Program

On two Thursday nights this summer I met with other astronomy enthusiasts at Singing Sands to observe the heavens. July 25th was wonderfully dark, as the moon didn't rise until late evening. Amanda from Bayside Astronomy showed us Saturn through her telescope and pointed out stars and constellations. Thanks to the dark sky, the Milky Way was easy to see. My husband, daughter and myself went home feeling wonderfully awed from spending an hour or more gazing up, and viewing through a telescope.

August 22nd, I ventured out again. It was warmer than July and slightly less buggy! And oh what a show! This time the almost full moon hung on the horizon when we gathered. Amanda was accompanied by Doug & Paula Cunningham, so there were two telescopes and an extra laser pointer. What a difference a laser pointer makes when viewing the heavens! It's so much easier to pinpoint the exact location of a star, planet or constellation!

The theme was double stars, and we saw several, including Albireo in the constellation Cygnus the swan. The moon, as seen through Doug's telescope was so beautiful and bright! Even though the moonlight was bright we saw several constellations: Scorpio, Sagittarius, Ursa Major, Ursa Minor, Cygnus, Cassiopeia and Cepheus, to name a few.

We are very fortunate to have the dark skies and Bayside Astronomy so we can experience the wonders of the night sky. Thank you Amanda, Doug & Paula for sharing your vast astronomical knowledge and expertise.

Sincerely,
Barbara Palmer

Letter: "Rocks Dispute" Article Contains Untruth And Misdirection

The item in the last Bruce Peninsula Press re: The Rocks dispute (unsigned) contained significant untruth and misdirection.

It was clearly an advertisement for a WHRA fundraiser and timed for an event to finance the cost to fight another long time land owner and neighbour.

I have long believed that the only decision making and dissemination of information and proposals regarding the Rocks is made by the executive of the WHRA and that if more and knowledgeable people were involved in the decisions it would be a different story.

I was threatened by one that there were more of them than there were me and they would run me out of money or give me a heart attack! Another stated that the WHRA were vigilantes whose goal was to run my wife and I out of our home and hopefully off the peninsula!

These were hardly the statements of reasonable people prepared to negotiate or compromise in good faith.

My goal and my wife's has always been simply to enjoy our home during our retirement in peace and quiet.

Nevertheless I still retain enough faith in other people to believe that if the residents of the area and the cottagers knew the true facts and the extent of the area that we have offered for public use, the majority would be very pleased and anxious to agree. This would put an end to unnecessary contributions and continued friction splitting the neighbourhood.

So far the propaganda spread by a handful of people has successfully painted a false impression of us and the "Rocks" and sadly incited a "mob" mentality.

Letter: Larkwhistle Garden A Pleasant Surprise

It was a wet rainy day at the cottage with friends. While sipping tea we discussed what to do for the afternoon; the conversation led to an article in the local paper about a pair of gardeners who were going to close their private home garden at the end of the growing season which had been open to the public for several years. There was a break in the weather so off we went having no idea what was in store for us, a very pleasant surprise.

Following the directions on the map we drove along country roads, each narrower than the one before. The trees made a natural arbour over parts of the back road; lush, green, and soothing. We finally arrived at The Larkwhistle Garden near Dyer's Bay on the Bruce Peninsula, far off the main highway seemingly in the middle of nowhere.

The old and weathered gate was open and inviting. We entered and chatted with the man tending the gate. He explained that there were three gardens for us to enjoy, the peace, the kitchen and the main gardens. Being a rainy day it had deterred most from visiting with only a few others there. We were encouraged to take our time, to enjoy and explore and we did just that.

The dirt path is lined on one side by tall, lush vibrantly coloured flowers creating the outer wall of the main garden. We followed the path until we reached a garden, surrounded by weathered wooden fencing and arbour. Trees and vines creating shade over the arbor, enticing us to sit on the benches and to take in the cool and calm tranquillity of the peace garden.

The kitchen garden is located against the wall of the house right outside the door, easy access for the cook of the house. Touching the leaves of the herbs releasing their fragrances tantalizing the sense of smell for the friends; leading to a discussion on which herb it was and how it's used. We could only imagine how wonderful it would be to step outside the door, pick the herbs one would need for the evening meal, fresh and wholesome.

The main garden is the largest and fullest. Filled with flowers, fruits, vegetables, water features and cisterns, the path meandered in and around the beds. Weathered wooden benches are placed strategically and enticingly throughout. We would stop to discuss and question the names of the plants, some we knew and a lot we didn't. We could hear the bees deep within the flowers and see small birds flitting about. The garden is not formally manicured but its beauty is breathtaking none the less. We were amazed by all that we saw. In this garden is lush green foliage, vibrant colourful flowers, the contrast of light and dark, the natural colour of the aged wooden benches and buildings; a feast for our eyes and a balm for our souls. The height of the plants gave us something to ponder; what techniques did the gardeners use to grow such gardens?

The beauty of the gardens so lovingly tended, nurtured into something so unexpected and located on a road less travelled awed us; the experience was a pleasant, joyous surprise and has given us memories to share for years to come. With a deep sense of gratitude we thank the gardeners for sharing their gardens with us; we wish them all the best in the coming years.

Sincerely,

Theresa Corman

Harvest Time At Lion's Head Farmers' Market

Submitted by Sally Raspin a cause well worth your time and energy.

The market seemed a little quiet this week, that's often so after a long weekend, but all our regular vendors and a few extras were in attendance. A quieter day gave me the opportunity to talk to some of the producers. One of the benefits of shopping at your local farmers' market is that you can get to know your producers, ask them about their products and learn a lot in the process. There is something very comforting about connecting to the source of your food and knowing the people who grew it and if you can't actually haul your own beets out of the ground, then you can buy them from the people who did.

plenty at the markets. Last year I stored potatoes in boxes of wood shavings in the root cellar and they were in better shape in May than many of those in the supermarkets. We tend to take the humble potato for granted, but good potatoes are well worth storing. It was good to see. To complement those fine veggies, Laura Buckler had an extensive range of preserves and condiments, the most popular being apricot hot pepper sauce and lemon ginger marmalade or you can try Russell and Abby Miner's spicy maple sauce.

Having bought 3 kg of honey from Mike and Jeri Schenk a few weeks ago, I had to compliment them on the exquisite flavour. They told me it was predominantly basswood which was responsible. The nectar the bees feed on creates the flavour and while canola and clover produce a light mild honey, some of the native flowering plants are responsible for the richer, more complex flavours. Mike and Jeri also spoke of the Ontario Bee Keepers Association which is petitioning MPs to support the banning of particular pesticides which have wrought havoc on bee populations, so if you value your local honey, this is

Molly Bridge promised that corn, peppers and squash were coming, and with the return of summer temperatures that should happen sooner rather than later. It's been a cool season and while great for extending the life of green leafy vegetables, it doesn't do much to ripen the sun lovers like corn, tomatoes and peppers. Potatoes are also being harvested with Having seen all the produce; always the first priority, I was drawn to Greg Stewart's cutting boards with distinctive black markings. Greg explained that they were made from maple which is left to age on the ground where a fungus penetrates the sap wood, turning the sapwood black. He also had butchers' blocks made from 200 year old pine which looked as though they would last another 200 years.

As usual our musicians kept us all entertained and they tell me they have raised $1,100 this summer for prostate cancer research. Well done!

Book Review Of Rita Baker's Run, Children

Reviewed by Stephen Bede Scharper

Good stories are like a voyage. They take you places and show you new vistas, all the while expanding your spirit and leaving you a different person than when you first set sail.

Run, Children, a collection of twenty-six stories interspersed with sonnets and short verse, is a winsome array of delightful "voyages," carrying the reader to places and persons they may never before have encountered.

From a young man with Down Syndrome working at a Timmy's, to the waning emotions of a dying woman saying goodbye to her family, to a ghostly pioneer who haunts his abandoned homestead, Rita Baker's stories are pithy and poignant. They gently take you by the hand and kindly, lovingly, invite your spirit to inhabit a different imaginative space; they compel you to connect empathetically and wisely with a smorgasbord of human experience.

In "Tell the Bees," for example, the final story of the collection, we are introduced to "Uncle Arthur," an avowed beekeeper who is really a "bee-whisperer," a gift he passes on to his nephew, who knows how to mourn with and communicate the passing of life to his bees. The story highlights the theme of "listening" which infuses the volume - listening to animals, insects, the war-weary, the old, the mentally challenged, the lonely.

To be a good storyteller, one must be a good listener, and one senses that Rita Baker has listened long and well throughout her life, both in the United Kingdom as a child and later in her full transplanting to Canada.

Many of these stories were previously broadcast on the CBC, and some have accumulated awards while being published in a variety of publications. Rita's experience as an editor of a national magazine, and script writer for children's television, can be discerned in her succinct, simple, and engaging style, which serenely curls itself around you and suddenly blooms with insight.

The volume is enhanced by her son David's illustrations, and a selection of poems slipped between the stories. One of these poems, "Where Is Your God?," is a masterful reflection on the timeless question of reconciling a loving Creator with mammoth suffering, while others, such as "Signals," reflect a quiet insight into the gossamer nature of human intimacy:

The flame of/the candle/knows/the whisper/of breath/from your lips./And I know/your secret sighing/by the flutter/of my heart.

In "Pretty Woman," Rita weaves an incisive reflection available only to the deeply attentive. Speaking of "Jan," an aging widow, Rita writes:

"The body can wither... but all those feelings and emotions and experiences, stored up over the years, are present and intact. They might be venerated with age, but they remain whole, to be dusted off and reviewed occasionally, perhaps, or left lying fallow, like an archeologist's dream, to be dug up gently, cleared of debris and looked at just as they were in another age."

Now residing along the restive shores of Georgian Bay, Rita, one hopes, will continue to take us on her literary voyages for years to come.

Stephen Bede Scharper, and his wife Hilary, both professors at the University of Toronto, spend their summers at Cabot Head.

Bayside Astronomy Program: Are We Alone Out There?

Submitted by Amanda Stanger

With the Bayside Astronomy program winding down into its final weeks on the Peninsula, if you have not yet been out to our program or would like to come out again, the Labour Day long weekend marks the new moon which means fabulous viewing opportunities.

Have you ever wondered what the origin of the universe is? Or if we know of any Earth-like planets? Are we alone in our Milky Way galaxy? In the final two weeks Bayside Astronomers will be exploring these questions and featuring in our telescopes many deep space objects such as nebula, globular clusters, double stars and our nearest galaxy Andromeda!

Weather depending, we will be at Millers Family Camp on Mondays, Wednesdays at Summerhouse Park, Thursdays at Singing Sands and both Fridays and Saturdays at the Lion's Head POD at dusk, approx 8:30pm. Monday September 3rd will be the final day for the Bayside Astronomy program this season. Hope to see you there!

Don't forget to support us and pick up your Biosphere raffle tickets. For only $5.00 each your odds are great at winning one of these amazing prizes:

Harbourside Music: Was The Real Story The Weather Or The Music?

Submitted by Helen Westover

It was another one of those days on August 9th, when weather threatened our 7 o'clock opening at the Harbour. The clouds moved through, dark and ominous. A distinct line of clouds made us feel very unsure of the evening weather and how long the crowd would be there.

The Ladies of Note, a small group of locals who sing acapella under the leadership of Susan Klages. Their 3 and 4 part harmony, of both sacred and secular tunes, wafted out to us, as they sang.

The Troop from Celtic was next with a group of 70+ youngsters and counsellors advancing into the audience, making our numbers swell to over 200. With a plastic cup and clapping, some 20 or so of them performed a rhythmic song. Then all of the group performed in a 3 part African chant. The Edge, a solo performer, entertained us with songs of his own. While he sang under those dark clouds and very ominous skies, the clouds opened, and a natural spotlight shone only on his face, what a phenomenon. Another performer, Custanza (sp?), sang his own songs as well. As a close, the whole group sang their closing night camp song.

Dr. Brian Taylor was next and opened with the entertaining song of what we as Canadians endure in the spring. It tells of many going through the horror of "Black flies!"

On August 16th the weather was perfect!!

The opening act, sisters, Hannah and Kate Sarnovsky, had a guest with them for the first song. Kaitlin Adele sang a great blues song. She has a true solid sound, and the applause for her meant, "We want to have you back next year, with more than one song!" The sisters went on in their calm, casual way, entertaining us. Last year, after only 8 days of practice, the strumming of the guitar was good, but many in the crowd spoke of how much the accompaniment had improved, and indeed was "spot on."

Larry Best took the stage and opened with a medley of favourites.

The Fallen Angles, a group of 5 from the T.O. area were last, playing fiddle, flute, guitar, accordion, mandolin and taking turns at vocals.

And once again our evening came to an end. Many of us could not believe that there was only one more weekend of music at our beautiful harbour. But we could believe that we would be back next summer, for our evenings of music, in July and August, 2014.

See you then!!

Georgian Bay Forever Speaks To BPEG About Water Levels

Submitted by Barbara K. Bobo,
BPEG media Committee

Why the bathtub ring around Georgian Bay? Katrina Gaibisels Representing Georgian Bay Forever, a registered Canadian Charity based in Caledon, ON, gave us a new appreciation for the term 'flow chart' as she navigated the various historical levels of the Great Lakes and the relationship with water we depend upon for the economic bounty this unique system provides....not to mention the sustenance and beauty we enjoy living near these great bodies of water. GBF addresses Water Levels, Water Quality, Wetlands Habitat and Invasive Species issues. In this specific presentation, the focus was on water levels, very topical to the area.

Data from several scientific bodies and government agencies such as the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, International Upper Great Lakes Study Commission provided lake level figures and focused on the dredging of the St. Clair River in a historical perspective.

An interesting wood cut from the early European settlement on the St. Clair River shows a peaceful, meandering river with a curving bank and men rowing small boats unloading a larger vessel...a far cry from the rapid flow of today. Ringed by commercial sites, the modern St. Clair rushes between concrete walls and is many times deeper than the natural 4-6' depth in its history. The sand bar near its mouth has long ago been removed and sand and gravel are still captured and mined in the area north of the mouth.

Various plans have been proposed, and abandoned. Some focusing on the St. Clair and its rapid outflow, others on a system wide solution. Lake Superior's outflow is controlled at St. Mary's River. The water from Lakes Michigan/ Huron/ Georgian Bay is being funneled through the St. Clair.

GBF is looking at slowing the St. Clair with moveable sills in the bottom of the St. Clair, but also investigating options on the Niagara River, as the sills in the St. Clair will not significantly offset the levels as, yes here it comes "Climate Change" is an overriding factor. The effects of glacial/sea ice melt, intensity of storms, drought and a 71% decline in ice cover on the Great Lakes area have been well documented. A new factor, Glacial Isostatic Adjustment, shows the tilt of the surface of the land under the lakes has changed as well, (see page 6, Fall 2011 GBF newsletter).

Any further manmade changes will have to accommodate factors familiar to us all, impact on the people and wildlife habitat, which in turn effect the immense economy of the region, which is estimated to be $5.1 trillion.

Other solutions propose to look at other international systems such as the Thames River Barrier constructed in 1983, which controls tidal flooding in the U.K.

For more info visit www.georgianbayforever.org where you can read their newsletters, donate and become more educated about the factors that impact this topic.

Next BPEG meeting is September 4, 7:30pm at the Christ Church Parish Hall in Lion's Head.

The speaker will be Kerri Meier, Environmental Co-ordinator for Bruce County. Kerri will speak about Bruce County's Waste Management Programs and will give us insight into methods of handling various types of waste in the Northern Bruce Peninsula.

Phragmites, Cormorants, Septics, Algae, Cottage Rentals: Citizens Share Their Conservation Concerns

Submitted by Elizabeth Thorn

The Biosphere is listening to citizens' conservation priorities and we will act! Obviously lake levels and water quality are at the top of many people's conservation lists. But we are also hearing about more concerns at our Community Workshops to develop a Bruce-specific Conservation and Stewardship Plan.

Phragmites in Pike Bay and Boyd's Loop Harbour, cormorants in Jackson's Cove, underperforming septic systems in Isthmus and Dyer's Bays and in Tobermory - all have been mentioned as concerns by your fellow citizens. If you are not sure what phragmites is or how it can ruin your water view and damage ecosystems or why cormorants can be a conservation concern for some residents check out our website www.bpba.ca.

New to us, was the widespread concern among some residents, that cottage rental companies were buying properties and thus growing numbers of cottages were renter rather than owner occupied. Residents noted that this is changing the nature of their communities and raising a new set of conservation issues.

Our next workshop is on August 29th from 7 to 9 pm at the Tobermory Community Centre. The topic is Inland Waters. Come and learn about our inland lakes, rivers and wetlands whose health is of course directly linked to the water quality of our shorelines. Share with us your concerns. Everyone is welcome. Over 150 people have already attended one or more of the workshops.

If you cannot make it, reserve Saturday, September 21st at 1 pm or 7 pm on Thursday, September 26th as these are the dates for the next workshops. The topic will be our forests and workshops will be held at the Tobermory Community Centre and in the Municipal Offices in Lion's Head respectively.

If you prefer to email your concerns you can send them to Elizabeth@thorn.ca. I'm the volunteer Chair of the Bruce Peninsula Biosphere Association, the group that is helping the community develop the plan. This work is funded by the Friends of the Greenbelt Foundation.

Labour Day Weekend Sunday: Last Farmers' Market In Tobermory For The Summer

Submitted by Noreen Steinacher

It's been a great season for the Farmers' Market in Tobermory for visitors, local patrons and vendors alike according to market managers Sue Jagt and Linda Webb. The numbers on all fronts have been up. The market has benefitted from a consistent showing of vendors and the variety of produce has been excellent.

As a resident of Tobermory, I think it's really important to have a community-supported market. When I go to the Farmers' Market almost every Sunday at The Meeting Place site on Centennial Drive, I see friends and neighbours and I can catch up on news during an otherwise busy time of year. I can get my second cup of coffee for the morning, fresh veggies and other local produce and see what's new among vendors. What I especially like is getting to know vendors like Mark, Antoinette and Hanna Rauket and chatting about things like community, business, the Peninsula as home and food security. This is really one of the drawing cards for me in supporting our Farmers' Market. I have wondered this year if more residents see this important value in making the Farmers' Market in Tobermory a destination for 'us'.

The Labour Day weekend is the last weekend for the Market in Tobermory, Sunday September 1st, 10:00 am to 1:00 pm so I encourage those who haven't been out to do so and join the regulars. Be sure to introduce yourself to our valued vendors and let them know what's important to you about a Farmers' Market in Tobermory.

3rd Annual Bruce Peninsula Multisport Race Recap

Submitted by Leigh Grigg, BPMR Executive Director
(Photo Credit Leigh Grigg)

For the very few residents who live on Cabot Head Road, the 3rd Annual Bruce Peninsula Multisport Race (BPMR) was over very quickly! As dawn broke on Saturday morning, the peace on Cabot Head Road was interrupted by a peloton of mountain bikes whizzing past the rocky beach. All racers were by and serenity was restored by 6:45am as Darci Lombard and Naomi Liverance went by. The owner of Summer House Park and the Tobermory paramedic were at the tail end of the pack of 46 cyclists, volunteering as "sweepers" to make sure no racer was left behind. For 40km, the two of them sweated it out on the gravel roads and single-track trails that make up the BPMR long course. The long course racers, and the team of sweepers, then continued to make their way down the peninsula by alternating foot, bike

Meanwhile, wonderful sunshine greeted a pack of 101 short course racers as they set off from Bluewater Park's Short Course Start Line at 10am. The good weather was a particularly welcome treat for the many racers whose race had to be abandoned the year previous due to thunderstorms. As long and short course racers continued crossing the finish line all afternoon, a team of volunteers and spectators were there to cheer them on.

As long course winner Kyle Peter, from California, approached the finish after completing 100km of racing in just over 6 hours, the MC called out his name from the stage, and he was welcomed across the line with a giant cheer from the crowd. Peter won the Men's category this year by 24min over 2011 returning champ Jason Urkfitz from Menden, NY. Una Hall from Bonfield, ON was the fastest female, Team Linde from Shallow Lake was the fastest Long Course Masters Male Podium L-R: Bill Logie (2nd), Vincent Luongo (1st) and Dave Bannister (3rd).

Raymond/Schwass from Barrie was the fastest tandem team. The short course was bested by Peter Beisel from Ottawa winning the fastest male paddle-bike-run, Greg Nichol from Owen Sound winning the new duathlon, and 17-year-old Logan Hong, also from Owen Sound winning the fastest female on the short course.

The exciting atmosphere in the park continued with the start of the Kids Race. Darci Lombard, having completed her long course sweeping role, followed by a short shift as "park scout" relaying by radio to the on-stage MC about the arriving Peter from the north side of the park, transitioned to Kids Race volunteer and spent the few hours running alongside the racing kids yelling out encouragements. Summer House Park had a big presence at the Kids Race this year, as title sponsor. It was obvious to anyone that popped by the park in the afternoon that the Kids Race truly was a mini-BPMR, being raced by little athletes running, biking and tackling the fun obstacle courses.

The festivities in Warton on Saturday crescendoed all day to the awards ceremony and the much-anticipated $700 Devinci mountain bike giveaway, courtesy of Bikeface Cycling, won by UK racer Paul Barton.

We all appreciate that the race can be organized locally and we all appreciate that the race proceeds go to supporting outdoor sport on the Bruce. The BPMR

They are all part of the exclusive list of silent auction items available on the upcoming Chi-Cheemaun Shoreline Dinner Cruise, taking place on Saturday, September 7th, 2013 from 6:00 until 10:00 p.m. This special event is one of the annual fundraising activities in support of the Tobermory Health Services Auxiliary and all funds raised will go directly to support health care in Tobermory.

Life Around Tobermory United...From The Desk Of The Lazy Theologian

Submitted by Brad Inglis

Are we there yet? How many more days until Labour Day? How many sleeps until it is back to school? Do we really have to leave the cottage? I can almost hear the echoes of these words in the air as we head towards the high holy holiday of Labour Day weekend and the beginning of the "New Year". Nothing ramps up like the rush towards Labour Day. We try and squeeze in as many sunsets as possible as the day light disappears earlier and earlier. It doesn't matter how old we get, there is always that little wave of excitement as we think of long ago back-to-school days, new clothes, lined paper and a fresh set of pencil crayons. The path to Labour Day weekend may also represent our longing for return to routine. We get to reconnect with the book club, reclaim our homes from visitors and find a parking spot at Peacocks (other than at 7 am).

Life around Tobermory United will remain a little quiet yet during these final days of August, except for the beat of the Drummers and ruckus of the Bridge players on Thursdays. These two groups continue to meet all year round and new participants are always welcome. The other regular programs like Nia Dancing, Tai Chi and the Ecumenical Book Circle will resume in mid September and their start dates will be posted.

Each of the local churches has continued to collect items for the Food Bank throughout the summer - we call it giving with intension. What this means is that during each of the twelve months we intentionally collect specific items that will help ensure that the Food Bank shelves have a variety of healthy food choices and household items instead of lots of one thing. During the month of August for example we are collecting items that will be good for school lunch boxes, such as canned meat and fish for sandwiches, granola bars, juice boxes, sandwich bags and any other items that will help get kids set for back to school.

Our Thrift Shop on highway 6 at the old Settlement Church will remain open until Thanksgiving but with Friday and Saturday hours only in September and soon we will not be accepting any more donations for the season - but there will continue to be great deals right up until the end of the season.

Some of you will know that I have picked up a part-time job as one of the callers at the Ladies Auxiliary Bingo. The pay is non-existent but the bingo players and ladies who run the bingo make up for that with lots of laughs and excitement. Proceeds from this weekly event go towards special projects in the community supported by our local Legion. It makes for a great evening out every Wednesday night at the Community Centre throughout September and the doors open at 6:30 pm. Where else can you go in town for a night out and a chance to win five hundred dollars!

As we continue on towards Labour Day Weekend we pray for safety on our roads and in our waters and the well-being of our children as they head back to school. Happy New Year!

Terry Fox Run Sunday, September 15th Working Together to Outrun Cancer

Join the thousands of people that are expected to participate in the annual Terry Fox Run on Sunday, September 15th, 2013.

Did you know that 84 cents of every dollar raised goes directly to research into treatments for all forms of cancer. Such low administration and fundraising expenditures makes the Terry Fox Foundation a leader in charitable causes.

Tobermory's run will again take place at the Tobermory Community Centre from 9:30am-12:30pm.

Participants can run, bike, walk or roller blade along the designated route. Pledge sheets are available at the post office, medical clinic or by emailing d.harpur@amtelecom.net. Last year the Tobermory location raised a total of $8,244.00 and once again made it into two of the 5 categories for the top 20 of 2012. We were 3rd in funds raised per Capita and 12th in funds raised per participant. Peacock's Foodland will once again be generously donating the pop and chips.

The Lion's Head run will start at 1:00pm in the parking lot at Bruce Peninsula District School (5 Moore Street), with the run at 1:00pm. There will be a 1km, 5km & 10km option that will all be wheelchair, roller blade and bicycle accessible. Participants will enjoy refreshments and hotdogs at the finish line. The 2012 Lion's Head Terry Fox Run raised approximately $8,500.00. Lion's Head has hosted a run since 1991 and has raised over $100,000 to date. For further information contact Vicki or Roger at 519-793-3872.

The Blue Water Park pavilion is the place to be in Wiarton with registration open from 8:30am to 2pm when the run will commence.

Merchandise and additional Pledge sheets are available at www.terryfoxrun.org.

It takes the effort and determination of small communities like ours all over Canada to help fight this battle. Everyone, big or small, can make a difference. So grab your running shoes or some wheels and come out on September 15th to help fight cancer!

Pastor Brad Mittleholtz Leaving The Peninsula

Submitted by David Warder

Pastor Brad Mittleholtz has accepted the call to be the Pastor of the Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church in Sault Ste. Marie, effective September 16, 2013. His last Sunday in the Lutheran and Anglican Ministries of the Bruce Peninsula* will be September 1.

Pastor Brad began his ministry on the Bruce Peninsula in May of 2003 when he was called to be the Pastor of St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Wiarton for a 2 year term. He knew that he'd be working with Anglicans sometime in his call, but hardly dreamed that he would be a fully licensed Anglican clergy just 7 years later. In 2008, Brad became the Interim Rector of the Anglican Parish of the Bruce Peninsula and was appointed the Rector effective January 1, 2010. He has continued to be the Pastor of St. Peter's for the entire time. Together, this shared responsibility became known as the Lutheran and Anglican Ministries of the Bruce Peninsula*.

Ecumenism (big church talk for working together) has been in Brad's bones from a young age. He loved exploring the many churches in Waterloo Region where he grew up, and had social justice experiences in Ottawa and Waterloo region working with Anglicans, Roman Catholics, Uniteds, and Mennonites just to name a few.

A foundation experience occurred when he was a steward at the World Council of Churches Assembly in Zimbabwe. The image of thousands of Christians worshipping, praying and studying in one place was powerful. What he witnessed was the reality that the ONE who calls us together is greater than anything we might have to build up walls.

Pastor Brad demonstrated that he could work well with Lutherans and Anglicans and also with the other denominations present here on the Bruce Peninsula. In Lion's Head, in recent years, Pastor Brad has taken or shared leadership with the Lion's Head United Church for Palm Sunday for 3 consecutive years, a worship service for Remembrance Day in 2012 and the Community Christmas Candlelight Service in 2012. Besides this, he has participated in the annual Lenten Luncheon series, ecumenical Good Friday services, pastoral care at the nursing home and leading book studies.

If you would like to come and say good-bye to Pastor Brad on his final Sunday, September 1, he will be at Trinity Anglican Church (corner of Frank and Gould Streets) in Wiarton at 9:45 am and Christ Church Anglican (Main Street) in Lion's Head at 11:30 am. A time of food and fellowship will follow the service in Lion's Head (about 12:30 pm if you want to slip in after worship). The official farewell service will be held at St. Margaret's Chapel, Cape Chin on Sunday, September 1 at 7:30 pm.

Pastor Brad will be installed as the Pastor of the Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church in Sault Ste. Marie on Friday, October 4 at 7 pm. A nice time of year to visit Northern Ontario and perhaps take in a tour of the fall colours of the Agawa Canyon!

The Lutheran and Anglican Ministries of the Bruce Peninsula is comprised of the congregations of: The Church of St. Edmund, Tobermory; St. Margaret's Chapel, Cape Chin; Christ Church Anglican, Lion's Head; St. Andrew's Memorial Church, Howdenvale; Trinity Anglican Church, Wiarton; St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Wiarton; St. Peter's by-the-Lake Anglican Church, Sauble Beach.*

Cove Island Lightstation Update

Submitted by Robert Square

The project at the Cove Island Lightstation is proceeding very slowly. Environmental consultants were out taking more soil & paint samples and a structural expert was out to examine the tower & the house. Given the age of the tower, it is in good shape. With a few exceptions the 150 year old lime based mortar is holding. The stone work of the cottage is sound with a few areas that need immediate attention. The interior is in bad shape and needs to be totally re-built. The government is not saying what plans they are considering.

Hoping a request for tenders will go out soon. With September just around the corner, time is quickly running out for a start this fall, which most likely will be the beginning of October. Everyone knows what the weather can be like in October on Georgian Bay.

The scope of the project keeps changing. As it stands, all lead based paint on the buildings inside & out will be removed and they will be repainted. Whether any underlying repairs will be done at this time is unknown. The old cement based coating on the tower & house will be removed. The mortar joints will be repaired with a suitable mixture & they will be repainted with an appropriate breathable coating.

Next spring any contaminated soil will be removed & replaced. Again I am not sure exactly what areas the government are considering as they are not exactly free with any information.

The Cove Island Lightstation Heritage Association is watching this project very closely and are in contact with DFO & Public Works almost daily with requests, thoughts & concerns. Of particular concern are that areas of historical significance, such as the lime kiln, not be destroyed.

The Cove Island Lightstation Heritage Association is a not-for-profit group that has quietly been working behind the scenes to preserve & protect the lightstation for future generations.

This government funded project would not have happened without the efforts of volunteers across Canada working on the passage of the Heritage Lighthouse Protection Act and its implementation. It has been a long & difficult task to assure our lighthouses are preserved & protected. The work is not over. Negotiations are currently proceeding behind the scenes for a possible transfer of ownership of the lightstation to the Association. Volunteers are required who are willing to manage the often complex issues of owning such a unique & valuable historic resource.

If anyone has any comments or questions, please email the Cove Island Lightstation Heritage Association: lightkeeper@bell.net.

Pentecostal Country Church Hosts Carnival At The Lion's Head Beach

The Pentecostal Country Church recently organized and hosted a carnival at the beach on the Sunday of Homecoming Weekend, August 4th. The carnival was absolutely free, no donations required. There was an amazing turn-out with around 700 people registering.

Some 500 hot dogs, 500 pops, around 450 bags of cotton candy were given out as well as 400 prizes.

There was a clown making balloon art, face painting, four different games to play, two inflatable amusements (one being human foosball and the other was a boxing ring used as a bouncy castle) and we had a dunk tank which was one of the most popular attractions. Marydale Ashcroft was one of many brave volunteers that got in on the dunk tank action and hopped up on the board for fun (there was a big line up of

Woolly Bear Caterpillar vs. Wiarnton Willie

So, mark it on your calendar to be in this coming Thanksgiving weekend. See the Lion's Head area for fun and festivities, you there!

Submitted by Helen Westover

This, according to The Globe and Mail, is what Wiarnton Willie said on Groundhog Day, 2013. "It's Groundhog Day — the day millions of North Americans turn to weather prognosticating rodents in the hope they'll call for an early spring. And Wiarnton Willie, Canada's most celebrated of all its furry forecasters, is predicting an early spring."

And this, according to The Peninsula Press, is what Woolly Bear Caterpillar predicted at the 2nd Annual Woolly Bear Caterpillar Festival, held on Thanksgiving Weekend, 2012 in Lion's Head. "All caterpillars borrowed from "Nature" for the Festival this year were in agreement. There will be about a month of stormy, wintery days, from the beginning of winter, Dec. 21/12, to mid January. The larger band of brown in the middle predicts about 5 to 6 weeks of milder days. Then the smaller black band at the back end predicts a stormy couple of weeks, before spring comes back to us."

It seems to me, that the Caterpillar won out over the Groundhog. Winter did last, and spring was a long time coming.

On Thanksgiving Weekend in October we will celebrate the 3rd Annual Woolly Bear Caterpillar Festival. There will be music, a log-sawing competition, car and truck shows, kids activities and races, and many more activities to make it a fun weekend.

It also runs the same weekend as the Pumpkin Chucking Competition and Lawn Mower Races, at the Richardson's farm, north of the village.

There is room for lots more activities at the same time. Call me at 519-793-3521. I have some good ideas.

a long list of sponsors (found at <http://www.brucepeninsulamultisportrace.ca> under "support") who are integral to making this possible. It's support such as that demonstrated by Darci from Summer House Park that exemplifies race weekend, as it shows that helpful volunteers and supportive companies are far from mutually exclusive. This is true for Allisa at Suntrail, Paul at Bayshore Physical Therapy, Shane from Alternative Wheels, Jaime from With Love and Koon from Warton Home Building Centre, Peter from Veba Canada, and so many others. The organizers would like to thank all the race partners, volunteers, landowners, participants, their friends and family for putting on this one-day spectacle that showcases the Bruce Peninsula to the world.

The Multisport Race Legacy

What are the aftershocks of a unique event such as the Bruce Peninsula Multisport Race (BPMR)? At first glance, it celebrates the wilderness found on the Bruce Peninsula (including its geographical features such as its bays, thick forests & cliffs comprising some of the nicest landscapes on the Niagara Escarpment.) It also rewards top athletes with some prizing, and if you look real hard you'll see it gets kids ages 5-10 "out of the house" & active with a fun afternoon in the park.

Peninsula Adventure Sports Association (PASA) sees the BPMR impact from a different perspective. Its goals for the race have been:

- Bringing in sport tourism dollars from out of the region
- Providing a stage on which local athletes can be seen & discovered
- Providing role models to inspire local residents to get fit
- Creating some civic pride in our community which spans the Bruce Peninsula

If you participated in the race this year, you can and should keep the momentum going by training for sport events around the region. Races to keep on your radar would include the Bayshore Race in Owen Sound this weekend, the Poker Paddle in Warton on September 14th, or more in keeping with adventure racing, Logs Rocks & Steel in Haliburton Forest on September 21st. There is also a fun event brewing at the Hiking Festival on October 4th in Bruce Peninsula National Park.

family and friends to be the first to dunk MaryDale!

There was an extra special visit from super hero 'Captain Kindness' - "Transforming cities and towns, by good into good!" A motto with which we all agree.

"Our goal was and is to be a blessing to the community and to practice a pay it forward kind of goal" says Pentecostal Youth Pastor Blair Joudrey. "You've been blessed, now go and be the blessing for someone else."

The carnival was a great success and plans are set to have the 2nd annual carnival on same weekend next year.

The Multisport Race is growing, limited only by the impact on the land, landowners and the strength of its volunteer army. In this respect, PASA would especially like to thank Lindsay Myles for doing such an excellent job coordinating the 121 volunteers, and for making sure they felt rewarded for their time.

This year the BPMR is proud to announce that over $2.5K was also raised for outdoor sport on the Bruce Peninsula.

Of course the event would not be possible if it weren't for the generous volunteers themselves plus the not-so-mutually-exclusive race organizers, sponsors, landowners, the spectators, the media and certainly not forgetting the participants. One policy the BPMR has always maintained is that if a volunteer wants to race... they should! (That particular policy is in fact the #1 reason volunteers don't return and sometimes makes our volunteer coordinator a bit nervous)

Thanks to everyone for supporting the race.

PUBLIC MEETING

1. Notice of Public Meeting

RE: Proposed Community Improvement Plan

Mr. Jakob Van Dorp, Bruce County Planner, reviewed the report. Mr. Van Dorp stated that the purpose of the plan is to establish a framework for the Municipality to support and implement programs over a 10 year period to encourage maintenance, rehabilitation, and revitalization of public and private spaces and to provide financial incentives to achieve these objectives within a defined project area. The defined project areas are the downtown cores of Lion's Head and Tobermory.

Mr. Van Dorp noted that some of the programs are incentive-based, while others are municipally driven;

Incentive Based Programs:

- i. Façade Improvement Program
- ii. Storefront Sign Improvement Program
- iii. Infrastructure Works/Building Restoration and Accessibility Enhancements
- iv. Community Energy Efficient

Incentive based programs enable the Municipality to provide grants to support private sector investment in program areas. This includes participation in grants available through 'Spruce the Bruce' and funding that the Council of the Municipality may wish to allocate to programs in any given budget year.

Municipally Driven Programs:

v. Streetscape Beautification, Signage & Landscaping Enhancements

vi. Public Space, Parks and Recreation Works

Municipally driven programs identify the project area as a priority for improvements. This designation can also assist in securing outside funding. The Community Improvement Plan (CIP) is based on a number of consultative documents that have been previously received and adopted by Council.

Mr. Van Dorp advised that no objections have been received from the public circulation. Comments received by the Municipality relating to the boundary with the C1B zones and public facilities included the inclusion of the Ministry of Transportation of Ontario (MTO) property on Hay Bay Road and that community energy efficiency grants could include parking lot design and need not be accredited. It was recommended that the CIP zone boundaries be defined as the downtown areas of Tobermory and Lion's Head which includes C1B zoning and some properties zoned "I" Institutional. The MTO property is contiguous with the downtown and zoned "I" and will be included within the CIP project area. He noted that maps will be revised accordingly. Previous comments by the public

In The Garden:
Hints From A Mrs. Gardener

Submitted by Joan Regan

More of Gardening in the bush:

So if you don't want to put in a full garden, and just a few plants under the trees will do, you can try one of the following methods.

• NEWS PAPER - (my personal favorite) you will need lots. No need to rake up, you will just be removing the nutrients from the soil anyway. I just clean up the area removing unwanted rocks and twigs. After you decide where the plants will go start digging. I find just getting down and dirty with my clippers, cultivator, small fork and saw works the best. Once the smaller roots are removed, and there will be lots, cut out the larger ones with the saw, being careful not to cut out too many as to cause damage to the trees.

Make the planting hole at least 3 times bigger than the root ball. Next, line the hole with at least 8-10 layers of paper, overlapping as you go, bringing it up and over the top. Fill the hole 1/2 full of good quality soil, loosen the roots of the plant to give them a good send off, and fill the remainder of the hole with soil, tap down lightly.

Water deep, let it settle, water deep again. Water this way with new plantings for at least 2 weeks, slowly tapering off. You should get at least 6-8 months out of the newspaper, but by then the roots have claimed their "Root Rights".

HINT: The larger the plant the better the chance for it to establish itself under those mean old greedy soil stealing trees.

• PLANTING IN POTS - Prepare the area the same way, digging the hole large enough to accommodate the pot. HINT: always have the largest pot that you can to fill the space. You can cut the top few inches off the pot if need be after it is planted. Always loosen the roots when planting. Plop the pot right into the hole and top dress with soil and or mulch

If all of this sounds like too much work then try potting up your plants in large pots, they can winter there, no need to move them, just remember to put any ceramic ones on their sides for the winter so the pots won't crack. Any plastic pots can be spray painted in bright colours to brighten up a dark space or a dark colour for a more subdued look. If the pots are big enough they can remain there for years. Cover the area with a good layer of mulch and instant garden.

I had a few areas under the trees that I had planted Pachysandra under and it had all but shut down, so I fluffed up the mulch and threw on some lime, watered it well and it looks like it's been revived. Thanks to Sue for reminding me about lime, completely forgot about it for refreshing the soil under the trees and in the gardens. Geoff says it helps to add it to the lawn also. Speaking of Geoff he puts a bag of Miracle grow into his rain barrel and waters with it. They have a gorgeous garden. So good to share all of these hints with fellow gardeners. Thanks to all of you for your hints and for letting me know how others have helped.

Happy Gardening, Joni

Mock Disaster Exercise Taking Place
In Northern Bruce Peninsula

Submitted by Cathy Addison, Municipal Deputy Clerk

Volunteers, municipal employees and local emergency responders will take part in a mock disaster exercise during the week of September 16, 2013. This exercise training will be held in the Lion's Head area. The mock training exercise has been in the planning stages for the last number of months and the time is here to see how the plan will fall out. The mock disaster will test the preparedness and response of local and regional agencies should a real crisis occur.

The event staged by Municipality of Northern Bruce Peninsula Municipal Emergency Control Group, will focus on emergency response plans for an actual disaster which would trigger a sudden influx of mock patients, concerned community members and emergency responders.

The full scale mass-casualty exercise is being conducted in association with multiple partner agencies including the Police, Fire, EMS Departments, the Municipal Emergency Control Group and various civilians playing characters.

The scenario for the practice event is a simulated exercise that may involve evacuation procedures. Organizers caution that the event is a significant exercise and the local community can expect to see emergency responders in Lion's Head looking and acting as if it were a true disaster. Normal operations throughout Lion's Head will have little effect from this exercise.

Under the Emergency Management and Civil Protection Act, the Municipality is required to conduct annual training for the Municipal Emergency Control Group and conduct exercises for improvement and training purposes. The goal of this exercise is to enhance working relationships and collaboration between the agencies and organizations involved. It's a mock exercise, but it's also a very real test of our ability to respond to an actual disaster. The Municipality appreciates the cooperation of everyone involved.

The exercise will not interfere with any real life occurrences.

For any information pertaining to the exercise, please contact Cathy Addison, Municipal Deputy Clerk-Community Emergency Management Coordinator.

Important Reminder for Veterans

It has come to our attention that in some cases, Veterans Widows have found that they are not eligible for financial assistance from Veterans Affairs because the Veteran had never contacted Veterans Affairs even though he had some disabilities as a result of his War Service and therefore is not listed in their records. If you are a Veteran who has an injury or disability as a result of your War Service, it is important that you contact Veterans Affairs so that in the event of your death your Widow may be eligible for financial or medical assistance. Contact Shirley Johnstone, Veterans Service Officer at shirley.jpj@hotmail.com or 519-795-7424.

Wanted

Photos of Tobermory Veterans, WWI, WWII, Korea etc. Preferably in uniform with full identification and Regiment if possible. You may be asked to sign a waiver if the original photo belongs to you. Hi Linda, thanks for those warm words and please give my friend Oland a kiss for me. Last but certainly not least, my loving & caring BFF daughter, thanks from the bottom of my heart for everything you do and continue to do for Me and Dad. The Hayes Family

THANK YOU

My sincerest thank you to all my wonderful friends and neighbours for helping me celebrate my 95th birthday. I feel so blessed to have shared two birthday parties in my community and to be remembered with beautiful cards and thoughtful messages. Thank you for making this occasion very special for me.

Evelyn Dailey, Lion's Head
(formerly of The Dailey Post, Tobermory).

You can't hold back the dawn or stop the tides from flowing, or keep a rose from withering or still a wind that is blowing. And time cannot be halted in its swift and endless flight.

For age is sure to follow youth and day comes after night.

For He who sets our span of years and watches from above replaces youth and beauty with peace and truth and love. And then our souls are privileged to see a hidden treasure that in our youth escaped our eyes in our pursuit of pleasure. So birthdays are but blessings that open up the way to the everlasting beauty of God's eternal day.

FIRE AND EMERGENCY SERVICES

CAUTIONARY MESSAGE

Fire and Emergency Services caution the public to be aware of the "flying lantern", also known as the sky lantern, which is a consumer product that poses a serious fire safety hazard. This product is sold online and at retail outlets. The lantern resembles a small paper hot air balloon which is fuelled by an open flame. When released, the hot air produced by the fuel source can lift the lantern to extreme heights and allows it to drift for long distances until the fuel supply is depleted. The lanterns are often released in large numbers to create an impressive visual effect. Due to the uncontrolled and unpredictable flight path, lanterns can land on trees, building rooftops or other combustible properties while still ignited which can potentially cause a fire. The Ontario Fire Marshal has written to Health Canada's Consumer Product Safety Bureau requesting that this product no longer be offered for sale. Direct your inquiries to (519) 793-3522, X233 or via email to firechief.nbp@amtelecom.net.

BUILDING

Residents are reminded that building permits are required for all construction projects. If, in doubt, please contact the Building Department at (519) 793-3522, X226.

Reigning Champ Takes Hewton To Another Victory At 9th Annual Washerfest

Submitted by Cheryl Hewton

The 9th Annual washerfest was held Saturday August 17th at the Hewton's Miller Lake Washer Field. This year saw some newcomers with a natural washer throw and some who couldn't quite move from their initial spot. We saw new faces and our old favorites make it to the finals.

We started the afternoon off with 24 registered players and a handful of spectators. Players kept individual scores with a bonus given to the winning team. Matches went 8 rounds with 10 matches through the afternoon partners being changed after each match. A great afternoon of throwing washers, enjoying some beverages, soaking up some sun and great company and competition. After a dinner break and the tabulations by B & H accounting the finals began.

The top eight women drew their partner randomly from the top men. Teams were: Donna Nixon (2012 & 2011 champ) & Mark Hewton, Deby Richardson & Rick Shearer, Bev Richardson & Nathan Henderson, Shirley Teasdale & Bill McNair, Breanna Hardman & Tyler Hewton, Tena Shearer & Ken Teasdale, Stephanie Henderson & Matt Henderson, Cheryl Hewton & Fred Bennett.

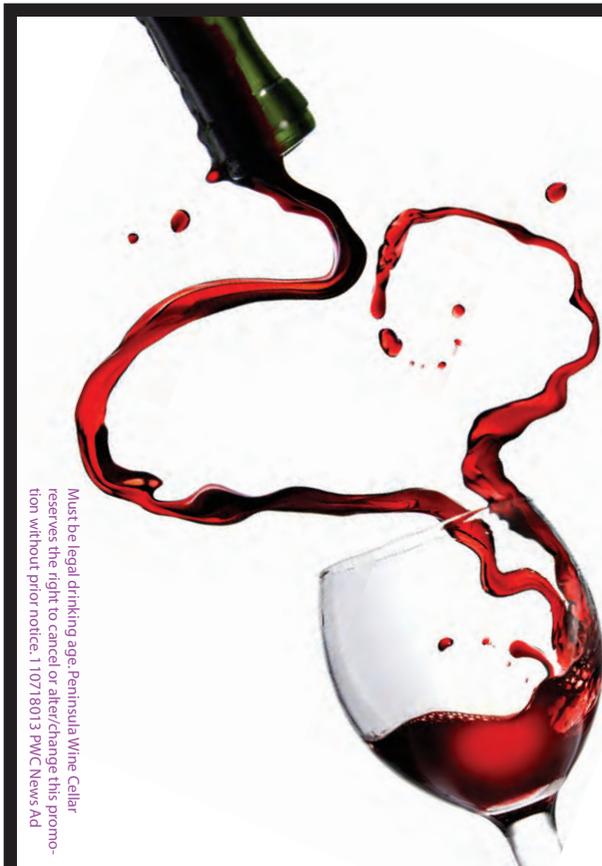

After 9 years of organizing this event Cheryl finally made it into the finals although the dream was short lived!

This was a sudden death game to 21 and crushing the dreams of trophy hopefuls. This moved the remaining four teams to another sudden death game that saw the team of Donna & Mark out Bill & Shirley and Tena and Ken taking the win from team Henderson. The finals would be the best of three games to 21. Could reigning two time champ Donna and her partner, former four time champion defeat the team of Ken and newcomer Tena..... Things may have been in favour of the 2012 Champion when fans arrived in time to watch her final games.

The games were close but it only took two for the previous winners to once again claim the prize. The 2013 Champion trophies were presented to Donna Nixon and Mark Hewton. Consolation prize went to Ken Teasdale and Tena Shearer. The 2013 cup champion was won by Bill McNair after a toss off with Fred Bennett, breaking the 10 cup tie. The "Bringing up the Rear" award was captured by newcomer without her beginners luck, Teresa Shearer (photo page 34. This award is given to the player with the lowest score of the day. Thanks to all participants and fans for another great event. We look forward to a bigger and better 10th annual in 2014!

Lioness Donate To Owen Sound Regional Hospital Foundation

Submitted by Shirley Teasdale

Cathy McLay (middle) outgoing President of the Ferndale, Lion's Head & District Lioness Club, and Bev Miller (left), Treasurer, present a cheque for $1,000 to Paul Weitendorf, Executive Director for the Owen Sound Regional Hospital Foundation.

The money will go towards a fund to acquire a CT Scan machine. The Foundation is seeking to raise the $1.8 million cost of the CT Scan machine by public donation and estimate it will take two years of fundraising to reach their goal.

Currently, fundraising is taking place at the corporate and service group level before the fund goes public in about one year's time. The Dock Radio station has already raised $50,000 for the fund. The Lioness Club contribution was raised through the annual Lioness Fashion Show that took place in Lion's Head in May. The Lioness Club thanks community businesses and individuals for their involvement in the Fashion Show so that we were able to contribute to this very worthy cause.

Baby Massasauga Rattlesnakes On The Bruce

Bryan and Maureen Loney live on a small acreage in the metropolis of Greater Cape Chin.

Rodney the rattlesnake took up residence on their property early this summer, spending most of his days sunning on a rock beside their barn.

The sudden appearance of four baby rattlesnakes casts doubt on Rodney's gender identity.

The abruptly renamed Rhonda the rattlesnake has not been seen since abandoning her infants on the Loneys' doorstep.

The three surviving babies, about the size of a pencil, are sticking close together, covering each others' backs waiting for that first crucial meal of baby frog or earthworm.

The Bruce Peninsula Press wishes them luck and thanks the Loneys for the superb photos.

Publisher's note: Massasauga Rattlesnakes are born live (the eggs hatch inside the female). They are pencil sized, fifteen to twenty centimetres long, with a button rattle on their tails. As adults, they will use their heat sensing pits to find mice and voles to eat. As babies, they are not big enough to swallow mice and voles; their "childhood" diet is presumed to consist mainly of frogs, worms and smaller snakes hunted by sight and smell.

Does this mean our property will become infested with rattlesnakes, the Loneys wonder. Received wisdom suggests they will disperse on emerging from the winter's hibernaculum (somewhere below the frost line). For more information check out the Ontario Reptile and Amphibian Atlas: <<https://www.facebook.com/groups/75392295750/>><https://www.facebook.com/groups/75392295750/>. There is also an excellent reptile and amphibian database at www.ontarionature.org.
